The Valuable Plantation, known as Castle Haynes, lying nine miles from Wilmington, on the North East Branch of Cape Fear River, adjacent to the lands of NATH. Hill, Esq. It contains about 1600 acres, 300 of which are now ready for the plough, and 200 more having been once cleared, could be easily made so. It is bounded by the county road, the river and Prince George's Creek, so that the whole tract may be enclosed by a small quantity of feneing, affording an excellent range for hogs and cattle. A large portion of the land has a growth of oak and hickory, and would be very productive if cleared. There are landings on the creek and river, and the Railroad passes by the Plantation, affording every facility for getting wood and produce to tion, affording every facility for getting wood and produce to market. oom, on Market-street, opposite the Episcopal Church. BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE AND THE BRITISH article in the Medical and Domestic line, usually kept in Drug Stores, and may be found at his establishment, on the North ad counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe.

which have followed each other in such quick succession, and formerly occupied by Messrs. Peirson & Kelly. Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between much labor and care in the selection of his general stock, and the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the old world, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American Publishe therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they re-publish, and the very low prices at which they are of-fered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE. In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radieal—"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Liberal.—The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the tra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Civalsians, and now, since his death, is conducted by his see in-law. Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Wes though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued. The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals. Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition. For any one of the four Reviews $3 00 per annum. For any two 5 00 For Blackwood and the four Reviews.....

Payments to be made in all cases in advance.

Clubbing—Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis. Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post-paid or franked, to the Publishers. LEONARD SCOTT & CO. 79 Fulton-street, New York, Entrance 54 Gold-st.

OR Sale at Cost .- The subscriber has for sale a large assortment of Broadcloths; Cassimeres, and Satinetts, all of which are new goods, of this Fall's purchase. He has also for sale a large assortment of Tailor's Trimmings. The above goods will be sold cheap for cash, or on short credit for good notes.
